

Top 10 Reasons to Join SGAC...

- 1. Unequaled access to and networking with experienced peer groups at events and on social networking sites (LinkedIn and Facebook) for consultation, advice, and coalition building
- 2. Structured and convenient opportunities to interact with legislators and legislative staff within small scale educational, business, and social environments
- 3. Unparalleled professional development and leadership training tracks through annual meetings, conferences, and SGAC's unique State Government Affairs Professional Certificate program
- 4. A "one-stop shopping" calendar of all state affairs groups' events/activities
- 5. Close partnerships and joint events with legislative groups such as NCSL, CSG, and ALEC
- 6. Exclusive Member Resource Handbook—a mobile "black book" of state affairs executives across the country and industries (contact info, photos, priority states and issues...)
- 7. A Members-Only webpage packed with organization information, meeting materials and presentations, links to relevant organizations, an SGAC jobline and more!
- 8. Annual Reports featuring key SGAC accomplishments to help with your annual state affairs deliverables
- 9. Special access to SGAC vendor and consulting members' services and products. Special access to sponsorship opportunities for your organization
- 10. Timely and succinct e-newsletter updates on the latest state affairs "happenings" your organization needs to know